THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY

By FONTAINE FOX

THE SKIPPER'S WIFE IS AWAY VISITING HER HOME FOLKS AND ALL THIS WEEK THE SKIPPER HAS HAD TO PREPARE HIS OWN MEALS ON THE CAR STOVE SO AS NOT TO INTERFERE WITH THE RUNNING SCHEDULE.

SOME SUGGESTIONS FOR GASOLINELESS SUNDAY

—Louisville Evening Post

WANDERING THOUGHTS

—The Passing Show. Girl (in church, looking enviously at new dress in front)—That would better have been invested in War Bonds—Amen.

QUALMS

—London Opinion. "George, darling, should we have a boat?" "Well, my dear, don't you think it's rather risky, considering that we've used all this week's meat coupons?"

"CAP" STUBBS—She's a Slacker

—London Opinion. Wife (in background)—She's a slacker. Husband—If my back was aching, I'd be glad to see her go.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

—Cleveland Plain Dealer

THE CARD HABIT—AS IT MAY BE

—The Sketch card. I can't issue a ticket.

MOVING PICTURE FUNNIES

—Cut out the picture on all four sides. Then carefully fold dotted line 1 its entire length. Then dotted line 2, and so on. Fold each section underneath, accurately. When completed turn over and you'll find a surprising result. Save the pictures.

—London Opinion. Brites—Yes, I'm sorry old Bill is sick. I feel for him. Pastor—like right. Fell in your inside pocket.

The Young Lady Across the Way

—The Young Lady Across the Way. The young lady across the way says an aviator who has brought down five enemy planes is called an ace and she supposes she who has brought down ten is a two-spot and so on.

—Percey—Say, old boy, can you tell me why a waiter is like a billiard cue? "Cholly—Heady, old chap, I give it up." Percey—Well, you get better results off both when they are well tipped.

ENOUGH TO PUT ANY ONE OUT

—The Passing Show. Irate Manager of Picture Palace (to operator)—Do you know what the "Interval" is?

OVERWEIGHTED

—The Passing Show. That old gentleman who moves so slowly is Sir David Lloyd, permanent head of the Soaling Wax Department. He's got a long string of letters after his name, and now they just made him an M. B. E. "Poor old chap! They are evidently a heavy drag on him."
